

AM I THE MAN?

The clock stopped ticking the moment the door slammed shut
And at that moment I didn't know what it meant
The words you used I swear I've heard them all before
But at this moment I couldn't tell you what you said

Tell me, is there a hole in your day where I used to be
Do you even notice that I'm gone?
Do you pick up the phone hoping that its just me?
Saying I'm sorry and that I'm coming home

Am I the man you used to hold at night?
And am I the man you said you loved?
Am I the man you used to care about
Or am I just the man you used to use?
Am I the man you used to use?

I swear that Dee-Jay, he's got it in for me
Every song reminds me of you
From "Brown-Eyed Girl" to "It Ain't Me, Babe"
They're all just breaking my heart in two

Do you call my machine just to hear my voice
And hang on in silence if I pick up
Do you avoid everyone afraid of the questions there'll be
"And how's she?" and "Did you really break up?"

Am I the man you used to hold at night?
And am I the man you said you loved?
Am I the man you used to care about
Or am I just the man you used to use?
I think I'm the man you used to use.

Instrumental

When I lie awake thinking in bed at night
With so many thoughts preventing my sleep
There's just one question I keep coming back to
How can you not be in love with me?
How can you not be in love with me?
How can you not be in love with me?

Am I the man you used to hold at night?
And am I the man you said you loved?
Am I the man you used to care about
Or am I just the man you used to use?
I am the man you used to use.
I am the man you used to use.
I am the man.
