

I DON'T THINK SO

Do you have intentions for the moneyed man?
Are you on his side, is it all part of the plan?
And do you have some answers for the Heartache Kid?
Was it something he said, was it something he did?

Well, I don't think so (I never did)
I don't think so (I never did)

Powerful, Geppeto, do you pull on my strings?
Your millions react as the holy tension swings
No meaningless moments and no random acts
Is there something out there proudly controlling all this slack?

Well, I don't think so (I never did)
I don't think so (I never did)

I can't find the words to help explain you away
It just seems so senseless every time, every day
A friend dies cold on a nameless, New York street
Was it some kind of message, or just some sacrificial meat for the King?

Instrumental

Can you give some peace to ease my troubled mind
Everything I see leaves me so uninspired
And can you even give some hope to my restless heart
I've begun to doubt whether I can really play my part

Well, I don't think so (I never did)
I don't think so (I never did)
I don't think so (I never did)
I don't think so (I never did)
