

ONE NIGHT STAND (JOHANNA GOODBYE)

There she stood just a vision at 'Pat's Little Good Times' bar
Our eyes met for a moment and in a moment we had gone too far
She said, "I'm alone tonight and I've been alone for most of my life
And though my name has always been Jane, tonight, it's Johanna Goodbye
Yes, do me a favor, tonight it's Johanna Goodbye"

I muttered some introduction, then moved on to smaller talk
And I didn't listen to a word she was saying, but I sure noticed the way that she walked
She smiled, kind of laughing, knowing what I was thinking, but she didn't really mind
I said, "Say, what are you doing here tonight, what are you doing here Johanna Goodbye
Why ain't you somebody's mistress or somebody's goddess, Johanna Goodbye"

Johanna Goodbye, goodbye Johanna Goodbye
You were there when I closed them, but gone when I opened my eyes
And as I write this down, I guess it comes to me as no surprise
But goodbye, goodbye, goodbye Johanna Goodbye

She said, "I was married out of high school, the pregnant senior at Washington School
And he was the captain of the football team and God Almighty, he was just so damn cool
And I loved him hard and mean with a pain that could make you cry
Then one day, he left me a note saying, "What we had is gone and so am I
Take care, keep it easy, keep it easy Johanna Goodbye"

Well, she told me this story, but it was her sad eyes that broke my heart
She said, "I once hoped for glory, but now all I hope for is a new start
And each day I wake up thinking, believing I can make it come alive
But each night I end up beaten, dreaming I'm Johanna Goodbye
Yeah, life is so easy, so pleasing when you're Johanna Goodbye

Johanna Goodbye, goodbye Johanna Goodbye
You were there when I closed them, but gone when I opened my eyes
And as I write this down, I guess it comes to me as no surprise
But goodbye, goodbye, goodbye Johanna Goodbye
Yes, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye Johanna Goodbye

I woke up alone this morning which wasn't the way I had gone to bed
There were a lot of crazy dreams and silly thoughts running around in my head
Did I dream you as you were or just as I wanted you to be
Now you're gone and I'm alone and wondering what's happened to me and my mind
Cause I want to do his kiss and hold you, Johanna Goodbye
All I want to do is love you and protect you, Johanna Goodbye
Take care, keep it easy, keep it easy Johanna Goodbye
