

REUNION

Colored lights on the ball court
Colored streaks through thinning hair
Party dresses pulled out of mothballs
The boys never did know what to where
I remember their faces
But I have trouble placing names
So many people going nowhere
So many ways of getting there

Got to get back to my reunion
They're singing songs from yesterday
Get me back to my reunion
I'll find out where I lost my way
I've lost my way

Time reveals all weakness
The stress fractures in your soul
And your lack of faith and courage in you
Holds you back from the world
But I remember believing
In all the things I was gonna be
But now I spend my time retreating
Holding hard to what's left of me

Got to get back to my reunion
They're singing songs from yesterday
Get me back to my reunion
I'll find out where I lost my way
I've lost my way

Instrumental

Didn't you promise me we'd meet there
And didn't you promise me a time
When all the roads traveled on lead where
I'd live at peace with an ease of mind
And I remember late nights talking
Us, sneaking away with our dreams
It isn't so much that they didn't happen
It's that I just let them pass me by

Got to get back to my reunion
They're singing songs from yesterday
Get me back to my reunion
I'll find out where I lost my way
I've lost my way

Got to get back to my reunion
They're singing songs from yesterday
Get me back to my reunion
They're singing Born in the USA
And Time After Time
And Purple Rain
What's on your mind
It's all the same
Anyway
