

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

The rivers are swollen and the bridges are broken
And the people of the town don't know what to do
About you

It rained all night, it came down from the fight
Stay out of sight, there is no telling what they might do
To you

Instrumental

The people screamed, they said, "What about our dreams?
Is what it is, exactly what it seems
To be"

It's just a game we play, ain't nobody supposed to win it anyway
Isn't this what you used to say.
Well, hey, hey, hey.

Instrumental

We put our trust in you, paid you to know what to do
Now that it's all said and done, we took a look around, tell me how
You knew when to run

The rivers have swollen over and the people have drunk themselves back to sober
And they're looking around for someone to blame and They're calling out your name

Instrumental

The rivers are swollen and the bridges are broken
And the people of the town don't know what to do.
How about you?
