

TAYLOR-MADE

Someone get me my guitar
Cause I'm in need of an explanation
A girl out left has broken my heart
And I'm in need of some redemption
I'm in need of some redemption

Someone find me a great big hole
One that's rich in excavations
I'll lay me down besides those tired, old bones
And await my resurrection
I will wait for my resurrection

Someone send me on a long dark trip
A jungle safari expedition
A wayward journey into my own deep thick
For there is truth in exploration
I'll find some truth in exploration

Someone give me some saving's grace
And courage to face my position
A little dignity just in case
I begin to waver at my valuation
I'm beginning to waver at my valuation

So someone get me my guitar
My best friend in these situations
Help me figure how I got so damn far
Off course in this direction
Yes, I'm off course from my direction
